BEHAVIORAL RESEARCH IN ACCOUNTING

VOLUME 7 1995

Contents

The Effects of Pay Schemes and Probabilistic Management Audits on Subordinate Misrepresentation of Private Information: An Experimental Investigation in a Resource Allocation Context
Chee W. Chow, Mark Hirst, and Michael D. Shields 1

Internal Auditors' Memory for Financial-Statement Errors
Bryan K. Church and Arnold Schneider 17

An Exploratory Examination of International Differences in Auditors' Ethical Perceptions
Jeffrey R. Cohen, Laurie W. Pant, and David J. Sharp 37

The Relationship Between Budgetary Management Style and Organizational Commitment in a Not-for-Profit Organization
Frank Collins, Suzanne H. Lowensohn, Mary H. McCallum, and Richard I. Newmark 65

A Note on the Application of the Behavioral Life-Cycle Model in Governmental Lending Decisions
Sarah A. Reed, Joyce A. Strawser, and Robert H. Strawser 80

Factors Affecting Responsibility Assessments After an Audit Failure
Morina Rennie 104

Control as an Exchange Process: A Power Control Framework of Organizations
Seleshi Sisaye 122